01.

Use it in interviews to help employers see why hiring you is a good choice.

The letter tells employers there's no risk in hiring you. It makes them feel good about giving you a chance and helps them feel confident in their decision. It also tells them how to get the bond once they hire you.

02.

Help Your Job Application

Add the letter to your resume or job forms. It helps employers see that you are ready to work, responsible, and trustworthy. Taking this step shows you care about getting hired.

03.

Make Employers Feel Safe

The letter tells employers there's no risk in hiring you. It makes them feel good about giving you a chance.

Prepare for Background Checks

Give the letter before a background check. It shows employers you are honest and makes it easier for them to say yes.
